In 2019, FEMM's community of teachers and doctors continued to grow, welcoming 149 trained teachers, and 111 trained doctors: 43 of which came from the New York training, and 68 from the training in Budapest, Hungary. These are both significant increases compared to the numbers from the past few years.

"FEMM is an eye opening tool because it helps the physician learn so much more about our patients. Through our patients' FEMM chart we are able to have an objective evaluation of their signs and symptoms, resulting in a more effective and satisfying consultation."

“The FEMM app makes daily charting simple when I'm on the go. I love all the options and being able to make it personable for my unique cycle characteristics. Its modern design is appealing, even for my teenage daughter who is also learning how to chart to monitor her health. One of my favorite features is being able to look back at my chart history easily. I also like that I can electronically share my charts if needed. I love sharing FEMM with people!” - E.
